Guide to the feng shui compass pdf printable windows 7

You can also use symbols of wealth, such as coins, gold ingots, and wealth ships or jars. An aquarium is another great tool for activating the water element. Once you have the overlay placed over your layout, you will notice the front door falls into one of three quadrants along the bottom of the layout. While academic education falls under this sector, other forms of education are also included, such as on-the-job training or independent studies. You may need to adjust the Bagua grid to fit your layout. Classical Feng Shui uses the octagon bagua for this purpose, while Black Hat Feng Shui (BTB) uses the nine grid square. This sector controls your wealth or prosperity luck. The feng shui remedies can transform the negative energy by attracting auspicious chi energy. If you choose a lighting remedy, you'll need to leave the light one for a minimum of six hours daily. The northwest sector can assist you in finding someone to help you learn a new skill or craft or impart knowledge you seek. The bagua map reveals which rooms fall into these different sectors/quadrants and which areas of your life they affect. An extended area of a room, such as an enclosed sunroom off of a den, or a screened-in porch isn't usually negative. Create a flower bed in the missing corner. While the north direction defines the front of your home, your front door may fall in the N, NE or NW quadrant. Draw or indicate all the furniture placements. In fact, an extended area of a home usually means you have more of the energy in that grid. The bagua is divided into eight sectors. Other objects include an iconic peach, wood furniture, water fountain, or aquarium. You want to scale-to-size each room in your home as accurately as you can draw, but don't worry if it is off a little, you'll still be able to identify where each sector/quadrant is in your home. This sector also rules growth and, of course, longevity. If you follow the BTB school of feng shui, then you'll use the square BTB Bagua. Note any structural features like a staircase, outside patio, porch, or deck. Begin by familiarizing yourself with each quadrant of the BTB bagua and how it relates to the room(s) of your home. If your home isn't a perfect square or rectangle, you can still use the BTB bagua to identify the areas of your life impacted by the map energies. Represents: Descendants (children) Element: Metal Activate: Metal art objects, crystal Color: Yellow, ochre, gold, pewter, copper, brass or silver You can activate this sector by using metal photo frames for pictures of your children. A six-rod wind chime is an excellent choice. Indicate where the kitchen appliances are located. For example, if your home is an L-shape, you'll still place the bagua over the missing areas so it forms a large square. These are just a few of the many symbols and objects you can use to activate each sector. The bagua map used in Black Hat Sect feng shui can aid you in attracting the benefit of auspicious chi energy for these areas of your life. If possible, turn this sector into a study area with a desk, chair, and task light. For optimum success, use the lucky number of fish for the tank - eight red fish and one black fish. If you need a better education or if you are studying for an exam or licensing, then activate this sector. The southwest can be activated to help you in all types of relationships. You will place the bagua map according to your compass reading. Use a grouping of nine for the ultimate feng shui luck factor. Related Articles The two main schools of feng shui use different versions of the bagua when determining these sectors. Use a natural crystal, lamp, or clay pottery. Place awards, degrees, and other symbols of your achievements in this sector of your home. The bagua can be used either as its original octagon shape or as a nine-square grid. Represents: Relationships and love Element: Earth Activate: Crystal Color: Ochre If you are seeking love and romance, add earth elements to activate this sector. Fame & Reputation Fire: Candles, wood Color: Red Location: Rear middle Love & Marriage Earth: Crystals, pottery, or ceramics Color: Pink Location: Right rear Creativity & Children Metal: Metal objects, especially round ones Color: White Location: Right middle Helpful People & Travel Metal: Metal objects Color: Gray Location: Front right Career Water: Aquarium, water fountain Color: Black or blue Location: Front middle Knowledge & Self-Cultivation Earth: Crystals, pottery, or ceramics Color: Black, Blue, Green Location: Front left Health & Family Wood: Plants, wood furniture Color: Green, blue Location: Middle left Wealth & Prosperity Wood: Plants, wood furniture Color: Purple, blue, red Location: Rear left Center Earth: Crystals, pottery, or ceramics Color: Yellow, orange, brown Location: Center If you practice Classical feng shui, you will use the traditional octagon bagua for your rooms. Make sure the water flows into the room and not out of it. These shapes symbolize coins. You will only use the BTB bagua grid over the parts of your home that are covered by a roof. The BTB grid bagua map, unlike the Classical, is a square comprised of nine equal-sized, smaller squares. Avoid plants with pointed leaves since these create poison arrows. Activate this sector to stimulate greater income and overall family. In BTB feng shui, the South Sector of the bagua map is always placed at the top of a layout. You'll create an imaginary corner for that part of your house that is missing and place the bagua over it. This sector is often neglected because many people place emphasis on career, love, and money. If you have what's known as missing corners, don't panic, there are feng shui remedies to help. Represents: Mentor and helpful people Element: Metal Activate: Metal objects, crystal Color: Yellow, ochre, gold, pewter, or silver (all metal colors) If you are in need of an influential person's assistance or a patron, then select a metal object or wall art for this sector of your home. The black fish will deflect negative chi. The northeast governs education. Place a landscaping floodlight to shine from the missing corner, directing the light toward your house. Represents: Health Element: Wood Activate: Water feature, plants, wood objects Color: Green or brown You can activate this sector with lush plants, such as a jade plant and others with round or oval leaves. Represents: Career Element: Water Activate: Fountain or aquarium Color: Black or blue One of the fastest ways to activate your career luck is to place a water fountain in this sector. Reinforce relationships with photos of loved ones, especially a wedding photo for married couples. This means that the bottom (North Sector) of the BTB bagua map will fall over the front side of your home layout. Nine is the number of longevity and success. All rights reserved. A well-known expert in your field can be represented with a related book or article placed in this sector. Install a lamp post. © 2022 LoveToKnow Media. A lucky bamboo plant is an excellent symbol of health. Indicate the front door, all exterior and interior doorway, and all windows in your drawing/layout. A few ways to do this is to create a symbolic physical corner. The center of your home radiates to all other sectors and is vital to auspicious chi in a home. Each quadrant features one or more examples of the element you can use to activate the auspicious chi energy. These eight sectors radiate from the center of the bagua and correlate to eight compass direction. If you don't have good health, none of the other things will matter. Your front door could open in the education quadrant, career quadrant, or the mentor quadrant. Classical Feng Shui uses compass readings to determine where to overlay the bagua on a layout of your home. The north oversees careers. BTB feng shui refers to the grid as a symbolic bagua map, and is fashioned after the traditional feng shui lo shu square. For example, if the extension is in the wealth sector, then you will have greater wealth. You can now use the map to help strengthen various areas of your life, such as career, money, relationships, health, and more. The Chinese believe that south is the most auspicious direction, so this direction of the bagua is located at the top and placed over your home layout in this manner. Use symbols of education, such as a globe, textbooks and other objects. Each listing gives the quadrant location on the BTB bagua map. You can also apply the feng shui remedies given should any of the nine grids be afflicted. Represents: Education Element: Earth Activate: Crystal, pottery Color: Ochre Activate this sector with a crystal or bright light. Print the bagua map below using Adobe Reader. The west oversees your descendants' luck. You can use other symbols of victory and success. There are several feng shui symbols you can use, such as the double happiness emblem, rose quartz, amethyst crystal or a ceramic pair of Mandarin ducks. You will superimpose the bagua map over your layout. If your children have challenges or difficulties in their lives, you can assist them by activating this sector. BTB Feng Shui doesn't use compass readings and applies the bagua grid the same way for every home or office, regardless of the compass directions. This is the sector for mentor luck. You can expand the square either up or sideways in order to create a square over your home layout. The bagua map is a feng shui tool used to map out the various energy areas of your home. You should end up with a big square shape overshadowing your home layout. You can use a missing corner feng shui remedy to anchor the chi energy in this area. Represents: Fame and recognition Element: Fire Activate: Candles, fireplace, lamps Color: Red, orange, mauve, or pink The luck factor activates recognition and can stimulate career promotions and growth. The grid squares should always be even and the same size. If you're having difficulty advancing your career or need an extra boost for a project, activate this sector. Unlike where compass readings for the sitting and facing directions govern the use of the bagua, Black Hat ignores the magnetic compass directions of the home. For Western Feng Shui, BTB, you can use the bagua map sectors for the correlating colors, elements, element suggestion, and location on the bagua grid. Add floor and table lamps to further activate the fire element. A few examples include: Plant a grouping of one or three tall shruberies. This sector is the center of balance or yin yang. The BTB bagua grid map is placed over a layout of your home. Represents: Wealth Element: Wood Activate: Water features, plants Color: Green, brown Like the east sector, the southeast element is wood and can be activated by the same methods. Keep the aquarium clean and replace any dead fish immediately. Set a large rock in the missing corner space. You will need to sketch the layout of your home. Both schools of feng shui use the same remedies and cures for any sector/quadrant negatively impacting your life. You can also use symbols of balance, such as a framed yin yang drawing or other depiction of this ancient symbol of balance. A missing corner is any part of your home that doesn't fall inside the square grid. Represents: Balance (yin yang) Element: Earth Activate: Crystal, pottery Color: Yellow Like the northeast and southwest sectors, you can use crystals or pottery to activate the earth element.
